

Bay of Plenty architecture winners in pictures 🖼️

Last updated 10:24, July 9 2016

Noel Jessop Architecture's Floating Boxes, built on a Tauranga avocado orchard.

Big views, light and a modern marae were the big Bay of Plenty winners at the Resene Architectural Digest Awards.

Hamilton's Noel Jessop of Noel Jessop Architecture won the award for best new residential build 150-300 square metres for Floating Boxes, set on a Tauranga avocado orchard.

Aladina Harunani of APA Architects & Project Managers designed this addition to Waimana's Tanatana Marae.

For pictures of all the best designs, check out our gallery above.

BAY OF PLENTY WINNERS

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Residential New Home between 150m2 and 300m2 Architectural Design Award

Designer: Noel Jessop of Noel Jessop Architecture

Project: Floating Boxes

Location: Tauranga

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Residential Interiors Architectural Design Award and a Resene Colour in Design Award

Designer: Tane Cox of Red Architecture

Project: A-cute House

Location: Mt Maunganui

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Residential Alterations and Additions Architectural Design Award

Designer: Will Tatton of Will Tatton Architecture

Project: Combs House

Location: Mount Maunganui

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Highly Commended – New Home over 300sqm

Designer: Will Tatton of Will Tatton Architecture

Project: Hadfield House

Location: Mt Maunganui

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Commercial/Industrial Architectural Design Award

Designer: Aladina Harunani of APA Architects & Project Managers

Project: Tanatana Marae

Location: Waimana

Award: 2016 Bay of Plenty Regional Commended in the Residential new home between 150m2 and 300m2 category

Designer: Colin Davis of DaVista Architecture Ltd

Project: Henry House.

Location: Tauranga