

ADNZ 2017 national conference

Calendar > Public Events | Wellington, 26 Oct 2017 to 28 Oct 2017

The ADNZ 2017 conference takes place 26–28 October at Te Papa.

This year's Architectural Designers of New Zealand (ADNZ) national conference focuses on thriving in the future by ensuring you and your practice are looking ahead and remaining at the forefront of the industry.

The conference will bring together a number of innovative, progressive speakers who are challenging the way we live, design and build.

Smaller, well designed homes, community living within shared spaces, sustainability and long term financial security are just a few of the topics to be explored.

Opus Architecture's interior work on 1930s heritage listing former Chief Post Office building — now Distinction Hotel — in Dunedin, earned him a commendation in the Commercial Interior Architectural Design category, sponsored by GIB. Fabrics and furnishings created warmth and mood, in contrast with the restored hard finishes, plaster detailing, bronze work and mosaic tiling.

ADNZ chief executive Astrid Andersen said Reece Warnock and Julian O'Sullivan demonstrated a strong awareness of time, context and place, which was skilfully incorporated into their designs. Every year, the ADNZ-Resene Architectural Design Awards recognises outstanding, creative and innovative residential, commercial, alterations and multi-use projects designed by ADNZ members throughout New Zealand. National award winners and the supreme award winner will be announced on October 27.
