2016 ADNZ | Resene Architectural Design Awards: winners

Supreme Award and Commercial Industrial Architectural Design Award: Tanatana Marae, Waimana by Aladina Harunani of Apa Architects & Project Managers.

The 2016 Supreme Award winner of the ADNZ | Resene Architectural Design Awards is the Wharemate for Tanatana Marae at Waimana, designed by Aladina Harunani of APA Architects and Project Managers.

Announced on Friday 28 October at a gala evening held at Auckland War Memorial Museum, this year's awards programme received more than 149 entries.

The 2016 judging panel included Michael Davis, director of Architecture Programmes at the University of Auckland, Dr Duncan Joiner, chief architect at the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment and first-time judge and past ADNZ Supreme Award winner, Graeme Boucher.

Held annually, the ADNZ | Resene Architectural Design Awards celebrate the most innovative, creative and aesthetic architectural designs across the country.
