IL Viaggio (right), a home overlooking the Shotover River near Queenstown, won the residential new home over 300m2 award at the Otago-Southland ADNZ/Resene Architectural Design Awards. Designed by Gary Todd, of Gary Todd Architecture, the modernist home is set on a 6-hectare block and "merges into the terraces overlooking the Shotover River, stretched East West to offer views of Coronet Peak and surrounding mountains to the North and Ferry Hill to the South". The southern awards were announced last Friday and national gongs are presented in late September.
